- (a) Full Members shall be entitled to admission to all Harness Racing coursing or other meetings conducted by the Club or on the Club's premises free of charge and to admission to the Member's Stand and to all other parts of the Racecourse specially set apart for Members. Each Full Member shall also be entitled to two annual guest tickets which shall entitle the holders thereof to admission to the Ground and to the Members' Stand or Stands; but each Full Member elected after 28th October, 1981 shall be entitled to one annual guest ticket only. All Full and Honorary members shall be entitled to a guest ticket upon payment of a fee of one hundred and ninety dollars ($190.00) (or an amount as the Board from time to time determines). Such ticket is to be valid for the annual membership period and shall entitle the ticketholder to entry without charge to Harold Park and Menangle Park and access to all facilities available to members. The Board may also issue guest badges for any Meeting or Race Day to such guests of the Club as it may determine.
 - (b) No Honorary Member shall hold any office (which term shall include Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson, Executive Director and Member of Board) nor vote at any meeting of the Club nor be present (except by invitation of the Board) at any such meeting or propose or second any candidate for admission for membership nor have any right title or interest in or to any of the property of the Club.
 - (c) Provisional Members shall be subject to any restriction or limitation of privileges which may be imposed pursuant to Article 30.
 - (d) Every Full or Honorary member shall wear his membership badge, medal or ticket in clear view whilst entering any of the Club's courses or whilst using the members' facilities and shall procure that any of his guests wear either annual guest badges or casual visitors' tickets similarly displayed. Every Full or Honorary member or visitor and every guest shall produce their membership badge, medal or ticket or guest badge on demand to the gatekeeper or other person authorised by the Board and on failure to do so may be removed from any of the Club's courses or other premises.
 - (e) Full, Provisional and Honorary Members shall be allowed free access to the Licensed Club Area and to the use and enjoyment of the amenities contained therein.
 - (f) Full, Provisional and Honorary Members shall have the privilege of introducing a friend or friends to the Licensed Club Area.
 - (g) A visitor shall not enjoy the amenities of the Club and shall not remain on the Club's premises unless on the invitation and in the company of the Member referred to in Article 46(d) above.
 - (h) A Member must show his membership card/badge on admission to the Club's premises referred to in Article 46(e) above.

47. (a) Subject to Article 47A Social Members shall only be allowed access to the Licensed Club Area and to the use and enjoyment of the amenities contained therein.
- (b) Social Members shall have the privilege of introducing a friend or friends to the Licensed Club Area.
- (c) A visitor shall not enjoy the amenities of the Club and shall not remain on the Club's premises unless on the invitation and in the company of the Member referred to in Article 47(b) above.
- (d) A Member must show his membership card/badge on admission to the Club's premises.
- (e) Subject to Articles 47A, 51, 52 and 53 Social Members shall not be entitled to attend or vote at any meeting of the Club, nor shall he be eligible for appointment to the Board of Directors or any office of the Club or to participate in the management, business or affairs of the Club in any way.
- (f) A Social Member shall not have any right, title or interest in or to any of the property of the Club.
- (g) Subject to Article 47A Articles of the Club having no application whatsoever to Social members shall include:
- Articles, 55, 56, 57, 58, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 76, 80, 84, 85, 91.
- (h) Subject to Article 47A nothing in these Articles shall entitle a Social Member to admission to any Harness Racing coursing or other meetings conducted by the Club or on the club's premises free of charge or to admission to the Members' Stand or any other part of the Club's premises set apart for the use of Members other than the Licensed Club Area.
- 47A. (a) Social members may be eligible to vote in the election of the Board provided they are a Voting Social member as defined by Articles 47A(b) to (d).
- (b) The number of Voting Social Members for each election of directors shall be determined in accordance with the following formula:
- (Number of Full members + Number of Young members + Number of Social members) x 25% - Number of Full members = Number of Voting Social members.
- (c) Once the number of Voting Social members is determined, the Secretary shall prepare a numbered list of Social members in ascending order of the dates on which they were last elected to membership of the Club, so that the Social member who has been a member of the Club for the longest continuous period is numbered 1, and if more than one Social member was elected to membership of the Club on the same day, in alphabetical order by last name for that day.
- (d) Voting Social members shall be the members whose names are on the list down to the number which is equal to the number of Voting Social members.

48. The rights and privileges of every member shall be personal to himself and shall not be transferable by his own act or by operation of law. In the event of proof being given to the satisfaction of the Board that any member has allowed his badge, medal or ticket to be used by any other person for the purpose of obtaining admission to a race course or any of the divisions thereof, or to any areas licensed in accordance with the Registered Clubs Act or to any areas referred to in Articles 46(e) and 47(a) above, he shall be liable to suspension from the Club for such period or upon such other conditions as the Board may determine or the Board may cancel his membership and thereupon he shall cease to be a member of the Club.

CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

49. The Board may at any time and without prejudice and without furnishing any reason therefore withdraw Honorary Membership from any person elected pursuant to Article 21 and thereupon such person shall cease to be an Honorary Member.
50. Any Member may resign his membership in the Club by giving one month's notice in writing to the Club of his intention so to do and upon the expiration of such period shall cease to be an Ordinary, Senior, Country, Provisional, Social, Young, Life or Honorary Member as the case may be.
51. (a) The Board of the Club may charge any member of the Club and any member of the Club may by notice in writing by way of certified mail to the Board of the Club charge any other member with conduct either on or off the Club's premises rendering him or if more than one, them, unfit for membership or unbecoming to a member or prejudicial to the reputation and/or interests of the Club. Forthwith after making such charge or receiving notice of such a charge the Board of the Club shall give written notice by way of certified mail to the member particulars of the conduct complained of and requiring the member to appear before the Board to show cause why he should not be dealt with in accordance with these Articles and/or Rules of the Club. Such appearance by the member is to be before the Board at its next meeting following a thirty five (35) day period after service of notice on the member.
- (b) Any member making a charge in accordance with clause 51(a) above hereof shall do so within three months from the time he became aware of such conduct and in any case within twelve months of the occurrence of the event giving rise to such charge.
- (c) Notwithstanding the provision of sub clause 51(a) above the Board may allow such appearance by a member so charged to take place at a later date. The appearance by the member shall be no later than six (6) months after the service of the notice.
- (d) At the conclusion of the hearing of any charge against a member the Board shall have the power to dismiss the charge or to reprimand or suspend from the privileges of membership for a period which the Board shall determine or expel such member from membership of the Club.
52. (a) Any member charged under Article 51 hereof shall be given the opportunity of refuting such charge or explaining the conduct complained of and shall be entitled to bring witnesses to give evidence on his behalf.

- (b) Any member aggrieved by the decision of the Board made under Article 51 hereof may appeal against such decision to the next General Meeting of the Club or to an Extraordinary General Meeting convened for that purpose.
 - (c) Notice of such appeal must be given in writing by the Member or Members within 21 days from the date of the decision of the Board to be appealed from and such notice must state whether the appellant requires the matter to be disposed of at the next General Meeting or at an Extraordinary Meeting of the Club convened for that purpose.
 - (d) No application for an appeal to an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Club shall be entertained unless the Notice of Appeal has been signed by the appellant and counter- signed by not less than ten per cent of the Full Members of the Club.
 - (e) Any Member appealing against a decision of the Board of the Club made under Article 51 may apply for a Stay of Proceedings until the General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting at which the appeal shall be heard. Such application must be given in writing by the member, together with the Notice of Appeal and must state the grounds upon which the application is based. The application shall be heard at the next meeting of the Board of the Club and the applicant shall be given the opportunity to appear at such meeting to put forward his case. Should the applicant fail to appear at the meeting of the Board of the Club, the Board may hear the application in his absence. The Board of the Club may in its discretion deny the application or grant the application on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.
53. (a) At any General Meeting or at any Extraordinary General Meeting convened for the purpose of hearing an Appeal, the appellant shall be given the right to appear for the purpose of refuting any charge brought against him or explaining the conduct complained of or to object to the penalty imposed by the Board of the Club and the appellant shall be entitled to bring witnesses to give evidence on his behalf.
- (b) At any General Meeting or at any Extraordinary General Meeting convened for the purpose of hearing an Appeal the normal rules of debate shall be followed and the Chairman's decision shall be final and binding in respect of such procedure and the Meeting shall have the power to reprimand the member or suspend him from the privileges of membership for such period as the Meeting may determine or may expel such member from membership of the Club.
- (c) The decision of the Meeting pursuant to sub-clause 53(b) above hereof shall be by a majority of the members present in person and entitled to vote at such meetings and the decision of the members shall be ascertained by secret ballot.
54. Upon the expulsion of a member pursuant to Article 51 or Article 53 hereof he shall cease to be an Ordinary, Senior, Country, Life, Young, Provisional, Social or Honorary member as the case may be.
55. Any member who shall be convicted by a competent Court of an offence involving dishonesty or who is sentenced by such Court for an offence to a period of imprisonment in the first instance which such member serves or who becomes bankrupt or makes any general assignment of his property for the benefit of or general composition or arrangement with his creditors shall there upon cease to be a member of the Club. The member shall advise the Club of any of the events described in this clause by certified mail within thirty five (35) days of the occurrence of such event.

56. Any Member (ordinary, Senior, Country, Young, Provisional, Life or Honorary) who shall have been disqualified under the Rules of Harness Racing or the rules of any association person or corporate entity with which the Club may be affiliated or whose disqualification by the Stewards or Board of any registered meeting or of any registered or other Club shall have been adopted by the Board of the Club shall upon disqualification or adoption ipso facto cease to be an Ordinary, Senior, Country, Young, Provisional, Life or Honorary Member as the case may be.
57. Any Member whose status changes to that of a person described in Article 18(a) hereof shall, ipso facto, cease to be a member of the Club.
58. Should the membership of any member cease pursuant to the provisions of Article 18(a) his membership shall automatically revive upon the said Article no longer being applicable to his circumstances.
59. Any member of the Club being a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, and/or a Director who becomes licensed by Harness Racing NSW shall ipso facto be deemed to have resigned from that office but shall be entitled to remain an Ordinary, Senior, Country, Young, Provisional, Life or Honorary Member as the case may be.
60. A Member who ceases to be an Ordinary, Senior, Country, Provisional, Social, Young, Life or Honorary Member as the case may be shall thereafter have no interest in or claim upon the Club or its property nor shall he be entitled to a refund of any entrance fee or subscription paid by him.
61. Upon ceasing to be a Member of the Club a person shall not be relieved of his liability to pay any money then due by him to the Club nor his liability under Clauses 22 and 26 of the Articles of Association of the Club for the purposes of satisfying such liabilities or any of them and the Board of the Club may take such action as it sees fit to recover such monies due to the Club.
62. A General Meeting of the Members shall be held once yearly in the month of October, which Meeting shall be the Annual General Meeting for the purpose of:
 - (a) Confirming of the Minutes of the previous meeting;
 - (b) Receiving the Annual Report and the Club's Balance Sheet;
 - (c) Hearing and determining an appeal pursuant to Articles 52 and 53.
 - (d) Transacting any other business that may be brought before the meeting under the Rules of the Club;
 - (e) The hearing of the results of the election of the Directors for the ensuing year.
63. (a) Items of business referred to in 62(d) above may be brought before the meeting by a member only if the member has given written notice thereof to the Secretary pursuant to Article 72. Such items of business for decision at a meeting shall be framed as resolutions and are to be put to a vote of members. Resolutions are to be passed by a simple majority unless they are special resolutions which require a majority of at least three quarters of the members of the Club, as being entitled to do so, vote in person at the meeting.

- (b) An item of business referred to in Article 62(c) shall be framed as a resolution and shall provide for the Meeting to alternatively:
 - (i) confirm the decision of the Board; or
 - (ii) impose any other penalty provided for by Article 53(a); or
 - (iii) uphold the appeal.
- 64. A copy of the Annual Report and Balance Sheet shall be furnished to each Member of the Club twenty-one days before the Annual Meeting.
- 65. An Extraordinary General Meeting can be convened only by authority of the Board or in pursuance of a requisition to the Secretary signed by ten per cent of Members. It shall not be competent for such meetings to transact any other business except that for which the Meeting is specially summoned or any amendment which in the opinion of the Meeting shall bear directly upon.
- 66. At all meetings of the members a quorum shall be 50 members (Full members) according to the Club's Register of Full members at the date of the subject Meetings. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Should there not be a quorum the Members present may at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for assembling adjourn the Meeting until such time as they may consider desirable and if there be no Members present the meeting shall be adjourned to such a day as the Board may appoint. The Chairman may with the consent of any Meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the Meeting) adjourn the Meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting for which the adjournment took place. When a Meeting is adjourned for ten days or more notice of the adjourned Meeting shall be given as in the case of an Ordinary Meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned Meeting.

66A. The Club may hold a general meeting at two (2) or more venues using technology that gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate at the meeting.
- 67. All Meetings shall be convened by circular delivered or sent by ordinary prepaid post or in accordance with Rule 101 to each full Member addressed to such member at his recorded address with the Club.
- 68. The chairperson at all meetings of the Club shall be the Chairperson or in his absence the Deputy Chairperson. In the absence of the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson the members present shall elect a chairperson from their number by a show of hands. The chairperson at any Meeting shall have a casting vote only. The interpretation of the Articles at any Meeting shall be in the first place left to the chairperson but any member present may if he thinks fit require the chairperson to submit the question of interpretation to the Meeting and if the decision of the meeting be adverse to the opinion of the chairperson he must submit to such decision.
- 69. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by the required majority on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:

- (a) by the chairperson; or
 - (b) by at least three (3) Full Members present.
70. Upon a poll being demanded such poll is to be taken of the members present at the meeting at a time during the meeting so determined by the chairperson.
71. At each Meeting the Minutes of the previous Meeting shall be submitted for confirmation by a vote of the Full Members present before any other business proceeds.
72. Should any Full Member wish to bring forward any motion or to alter any Article or to add any new Article he shall give written notice thereof to the Secretary at least thirty-five days before the Meeting at which he may wish his proposition to be considered and the Secretary shall immediately advise each Full Member by circular. No such business of which notice has not been given shall be entertained at any Meeting.
73. Subject to the corporations legislation the Club may by special resolution alter its Memorandum and/or Articles of Association.

MANAGEMENT

74. The general business of the Club shall be managed by a Board whose members shall be a Chairperson, a Deputy Chairperson and five (5) other directors.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF BOARD

75. The Board is empowered to so act as to give effect to the objects or any of them for which the Club is established and in this regard but not by way of limitation the Board has power:

- (v) The Board may, at any time, engage the services of a professional electoral consultant or company to perform, or assist in performing, any or all of the duties of the Returning Officer or scrutineers set out in this Article 76.

- (w) If at the close of the Annual General Meeting any vacancies remain on the Board, such vacancies shall be casual vacancies and may be filled in accordance with Article 76.
- (x) The Board shall meet as soon as practicable after each Annual General Meeting to elect from among their number
 - (i) a Chairperson;
 - (ii) a Deputy Chairperson; and
 - (iii) an Ordinary director who, along with the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson, will form the executive of the Board.
- (y) The directors elected to the positions referred to in Article 76(x) shall, subject to these Articles, hold office in those positions until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting.
- (z) The Secretary shall conduct the election of the positions referred to in Article 76(x) and any election required. The positions will be elected in the order of Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson and the Ordinary director who will form the executive. All directors participating at the meeting are able to vote in the election of all those positions.

76A. The Directors of the Club shall for the purposes of the Annual General Meeting in 2013 and thereafter, be elected in accordance with Schedule 4 of the Registered Clubs Act, the terms of which are repeated in the schedule to this Article 76A.

SCHEDULE

Definitions

1. In this Schedule -

"general meeting" means a meeting of the members of the club at which members of the governing body are to be elected;

"triennial rule" means the rule of the club that provides for the election of members of the governing body in accordance with this Schedule;

"year" means the period between successive general meetings.

2. Repealed.

First general meeting under triennial rule

- 3. (1) The members elected to the governing body at the first general meeting at which the triennial rule applies shall be divided into 3 groups.
- (2) The groups –
 - (a) shall be determined by drawing lots; and
 - (b) shall be as nearly as practicable equal in number; and
 - (c) shall be designated as group 1, group 2 and group 3.

- (3) Unless otherwise disqualified, the members of the governing body -
- (a) in group 1 shall hold office for 1 year; and
 - (b) in group 2 shall hold office for 2 years; and
 - (c) in group 3 shall hold office for 3 years.

Subsequent general meetings

4. At each general meeting held while the triennial rule is in force (other than the first such meeting) the number of the members required to fill vacancies on the governing body shall be elected and shall, unless otherwise disqualified, hold office for 3 years.

Casual vacancies

5. (1) A person who fills a casual vacancy in the office of a member of the governing body elected in accordance with this Schedule shall, unless otherwise disqualified, hold office until the next succeeding general meeting.
- (2) The vacancy caused at a general meeting by a person ceasing to hold office under subclause (1) shall be filled by election at the general meeting and the person elected shall, unless otherwise disqualified, hold office for the residue of the term of office of the person who caused the casual vacancy initially filled by the person who ceased to hold office at the general meeting.

Re-election

6. A person whose term of office as a member of the governing body under the triennial rule expires is not for that reason ineligible for election for a further term.

Revocation of triennial rule

7. If the triennial rule is revoked –
- (a) at a general meeting - all the members of the governing body cease to hold office; or
 - (b) at a meeting other than a general meeting - all the members of the governing body cease to hold office at the next succeeding general meeting,
- and an election shall be held at the meeting to elect the members of the governing body.

77. Deleted.

78. Deleted.

79. The Board shall have the power to make by-laws regulating all matters in connection with the election of the Board that are not inconsistent with these Articles.

80. The Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of the Club shall not be eligible for re-election to such office if he has held such office for the six (6) consecutive years immediately preceding such re-election.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

81. The Board shall meet as often as they deem necessary to transact the current business. The Minutes of the proceedings at each meeting shall be entered in a book and confirmed at the next Meeting.
82. The Chairman at all meetings of the Board shall be the Chairperson and in his absence the Deputy Chairperson. In the absence of the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson, the Members of the Board present shall elect a Chairman from their number by a show of hands. The Chairman at any meeting of the Board shall have a casting vote only.
83. A quorum necessary for all meetings of the Board shall be four (4).
 - (a) The continuing directors on the Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by this Constitution as the necessary quorum of the Board, the continuing director or directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors on the Board to that number or of summoning a general meeting of the Club, but for no other purpose.
 - (b) Subject to Article 85, the Board shall have power at any time and from time to time, to appoint any eligible person to the Board to fill a casual vacancy. The person so appointed shall hold office in Accordance with the triennial rule set out in Article 76A.
85. If the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson cease to hold office for any reason then another member of the Board may be elected by the other Directors to that position. The Director elected to fill the office will hold such office until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting.
 - (a) If the vacancy is in the office of the Chairperson, the position shall be filled by the Deputy Chairperson until the Annual General Meeting. Such period in office as Chairperson shall be reckoned as part of the term as Deputy Chairperson. In any case the Deputy Chairperson shall be eligible to nominate for the position of Chairperson at such Annual General Meeting.
 - (b) If the vacancy is in the office of Deputy Chairperson the other Directors shall choose a new Deputy Chairperson from among themselves to hold office until the Annual General Meeting. Such period of office shall not count as part of the Deputy Chairperson's term.
 - (c) The Directors may in their discretion co-opt a member to fill the casual vacancy thus created until the Annual General Meeting.
86. Any Member of the Board having been absent from three consecutive Board Meetings provided he had had due notice of such Meetings shall cease to be a Director thereof unless he shall have obtained leave of absence from the Board.
87. The Board shall be indemnified from the funds of the Club against the cost of any legal proceedings which may be instituted against them in consequence of the performance of their duties.
88. Any Deed or document debenture promissory note or security which the Board shall by any resolution determine on executing may be under the Common Seal of the Club signed by the Chairperson and the Secretary or by any two Directors and the Secretary.

89. The Financial Year for the Club shall be from 1st July to 30th June of the following year. The 1992-1993 Financial Year for the Club shall end 30th June 1993.
- 89A. Subject to these Articles questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes and a determination by a majority of the Board shall for all purposes be deemed a determination of the Board. In case of an equality of votes the chairperson of the meeting shall have a casting vote
- 89B. All acts done by any meeting of the Board or of a committee or by any person acting as a member of the Board shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member of the Board or person acting as aforesaid, or that the members of the Board or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a member of the Board.
- 89C. A resolution in writing signed by all the directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more directors. The resolution shall be passed when the last director signs the document containing the resolution.
- 89D. In addition to Rule 30.8, a resolution may be passed by the Board if the proposed resolution is emailed to all directors and all directors agree to the proposed resolution by each director sending a reply email to the Club to that effect. The resolution shall be passed when the last director has sent their reply email agreeing to the proposed resolution.
- 89E. A meeting of the Board may be called or held using any technology consented to by all the directors. The consent may be a standing one. A director may only withdraw his or her consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.
